

Kategese: Van oorgeërfde geloof na eie belydenis

Vorbereidingsproses

Hierdie voorbereidingsproses vind plaas deur 'n 2 jaar-kursus as kandidaat te voltooi. Die eerste jaar word gewy aan Bybelkennis en die 2de jaar aan die kerk se orde.

Gedurende hul eerste jaar vind n geweldige groei plaas. Hul selfvertroue om te bid, vrae te vra en meelewing van die les is oorweldigend. Ek kan met trots sê dat na die 2de jaar kry ons 'n selfversekerde christen in ons kerk.

Die antwoorde wat hier verskaf word is deur die kerkisante self gegee:

- Belydenisaflegging is nie bloot 'n seremonie of n familiegeleentheid nie, maar persoonlike toewyding.

Nikita Boise

It's a turning point – the moment they step forward to say “This faith is mine.” It's a move from inherited faith to personal commitment.

Hayden Fester

It's to acknowledge one's sinfulness and to obtain forgiveness and to declare one's faith openly.

Amy-Lee Booysen

It's a public declaration of your faith It's an opportunity to strengthen my faith and take responsibility for my spiritual journey.

Beauron Koopman

Dit is n persoonlike verbintenis aan Christus en 'n besluit om Hom te volg.

Isabella Baron

Confession helps us improve our emotional and spiritual journey towards God. It helps us gain self-confidence and a better understanding of the Bible and helps us grow as young people in Christ.

The role of the parents and congregation

Javier Cloete

Parents and the congregation should support, guide, encourage and involve young people in the church activities before and after confirmation.

Nikita Boise/ Luke Hartzenberg

Parents remain the first guides.

Kiteya Reen

Parents should be an everlasting support pillar and guide them further.

After confession

Hayden Fester

Keep the young people involved in the church as confession is not a one-time only occasion.

Amy – Lee Booysen

The church should continue to encourage them through youth activities, worship services and opportunities to serve the Lord and the congregation.
